

Summer Book Swap and Sale

- Who? All Thornhill Residents--Children and Adults
- What? A Book Swap to trade in your old books, of all kinds, for some “new” books for great summer reading
- When? Saturday, June 6th, 2pm – 5pm
Swappers come early for best selection!!! After 4pm, books will also be available for sale...paperbacks $.50 each and hardbacks $1.00. So, if you haven’t donated any books, come purchase some...all money will be donated to TWA.
- Where? Thornhill Pavilion

How does this work? Between today and Friday June 5th, drop your books off at 10927 Owl Nest Lane in the bin on the front porch. Be sure to include the detached paper below.

Come to the Pavilion between 2pm-5pm on Saturday, June 6th and take home some “new to you” books to read this summer.

(For example, if you give 10 books to the swap, you can walk away with up to 10 “new” books).

Thank you to those of you who participated in the previous Book Swaps. If you didn’t swap all of your books, I still have your information. Feel free to come again.
